These regulations are not intended to and do not prohibit electioneering outside the 100 feet of an outside door through which a voter may enter the building in which a polling place is located as described in Section 61.003(a) of the Texas Election Code, but are to provide reasonable regulations for electioneering on property owned by Johnson County that is outside the 100 foot perimeter as described in Section 61.003(a) of the Texas Election Code.

For purposes of these regulations the following definitions apply:

1. "Electioneering" includes the posting, use, or distribution of political signs or literature.
2. "Early voting period" means the period prescribed by Section 85.001 of the Texas Election Code.
3. "Voting period" means the period beginning when the polls open for voting and ending when the polls close or the last voter has voted, whichever is later.

1. Tables, tents, covered canopies, large coolers or any structure that is attached or anchored to the ground may not be placed on the property during the early voting period or during the voting period. Chairs and umbrellas are permissible.

A violation of this order is punishable as a Class C misdemeanor with a fine not to exceed $500.00.
